HISTORICAL SKETCH.

I.

ORGANIZATION.

The Congregational Church in Springfield, Vt. was organized Oct. 3, 1781. It consisted of "eight males and eight females." From the best information we can obtain, the first sixteen in the accompanying Catalogue were the original members. The first volume of the Church Records having been lost, we have laid under tribute the Records of the Town and the memories of several of the oldest, and many of the younger inhabitants, now living, and hope the attempt here made, to rescue and preserve the names of the members, and the early history of the Church, may not result in the publication of more errors than facts. Painful search has been made to obtain what is reliable.

May 18, 1803, a Religious Society was formed to act in connection with the Church, for the support of the gospel. Prior to that time, the Town, as such, had acted with the Church, for that purpose.

II.

MEETING-HOUSES.

Jan. 4, 1786, the Town voted "to build a Meeting-House, 56x40, with posts 21 feet high, with two porches, one at each end, 12 feet square, near the Burying ground, on Hubbard's or Martin's land; the cost of said Meeting-House to be paid in Neat Cattle or Grain at half price." Voted also, "to class the Town, and see that each class furnish its share of stuffs for building and finishing the Meeting-House."

These votes, so far, at least, as the location of the Meeting-House was concerned, were reconsidered, a part of the people of the Town preferring to locate it near the Eureka School-House, on land now owned by Abijah Miller, Esq.; others wishing to locate it on land near Mr. Christopher Ellis'; and others, where it was eventually located, on the Common, near the Village Cemetery. It was not finished till 1798.

For thirty-one years it continued to be the place "whither the tribes went up."

In 1832, a new House of Worship was built on Main Street, in the village, and dedicated Jan. 9, 1833.

In 1868, this House, having been considered, for a long time, too small conveniently to accommodate those desiring to worship in it, was enlarged, and remodeled by the addition of a Tower in front; a Chancel and Orchestra; the entire refitting of the Lecture Rooms; and the reseating of the Audience Room, with curved pews.

The cost of these improvements, including a new Organ, Communion Service, Pulpit, and Furniture, was about $14,000.

It was rededicated May 30, 1869.

III.

MINISTERS.

The first record we have of any action on the part of the Town in reference to preaching, is found in a "Notification" of a Town meeting called May 5, 1788; which was "to see if the Town will hire preaching." An affirmative vote was passed which resulted in hiring Rev. Samuel Cotton to preach three months. At the end of that time, Aug. 4, 1788, the Town "chose a Committee to join a Committee of the Church, to treat with Rev. Mr. Cotton on terms of Settlement." On the first Tuesday in September following, the Town gave Mr. Cotton a formal call. He preached for them about one year in all; but the call was declined.

So far as any record appears, the Church was without stated preaching for more than two years. May 17, 1792, a Committee was chosen by the Town, "to procure a Congregational preacher, of the standing order." Probably Rev. Benj. Stone was the choice of this Committee, and we infer that his labors commenced soon after the appointment of this Committee.

Nov. 5, 1792, the Town gave Rev. Mr. Stone a call to settle, which he declined, and the Church was without preaching again for about a year and a half.

April 5, 1794, the Town voted "to hire preaching for six months." No minister's name appears on that vote.

Dec. 17, 1794, voted "to hire preaching a year." This vote probably secured the services of Rev. Joseph Prince. How long he remained is not known, nor who, if any one, supplied the pulpit, till April 5, 1796, when the Town chose a Committee, and raised money "to hire preaching, the ensuing season." Rev. Mr. Williams is the next man named, as supplying the pulpit. He remained some five months.

After Rev. Mr. Williams, probably about the first of Jan. 1797, Rev. Archibald Campbell came, and remained some six or eight months.

The next Candidate was Rev. Nicholas B. Whitney, who probably began to preach in Sept. 1797. April 30, 1798, the Town gave Mr. Whitney "an ineffectual call." He supplied about nine months, in all.

About a year passed, when the Town, on the first Tuesday in Sept. 1799, voted a tax of one cent on a dollar, to pay for preaching.

This vote led to action which brought Pastor Smiley here. He began to preach in Springfield, in the Spring, or early Summer, of 1800. The Town voted him a call April 6, 1801; the Church, June 28, following. He accepted the call, and became the first settled Pastor, Sept. 23, 1801; all who had served before him having been Stated or Occasional Supplies. His term of service and that of the ten settled Pastors and one Acting Pastor, who have followed him, may be found on page 13.

The average length of the nine Pastorates, previous to the present, is nearly seven years. The longest, that of Pastor Smiley, was twenty-four years, one month, and nine days; the shortest, that of Rev. Mr. Haseltine, was one year and nine days.

IV.

REVIVALS.

In eighty-seven years, the Church has enjoyed seven seasons of more or less extensive revival, viz.—

1st and 2nd, In 1810, and 1821-2,	Rev. Mr. Smiley, Pastor.
3d, In 1831,	Rev. Mr. Goodman, Pastor.
4th, In 1834-5 "Burchard Revival,"	Rev. Mr. Morton, Pastor.
5th, In 1840-2,	Rev. Mr. Noble, Pastor.
6th, In 1856-7,	Rev. Mr. Giddings, Pastor.
7th, In 1867-8,	Rev. Mr. Cobb, Pastor.

Nine hundred and forty-eight, or more than three fourths of the 1226 members of this Church, have been added by Profession; 278 by Letter. More than two thirds have been added in Revivals of Religion.

V.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL.

In the Spring of 1818, Pastor Smiley opened a Sabbath-School in his house. He continued it as long as he was Pastor; after which, it was held, for some years, in the School-House on the Common, near the Meeting-House; and then, in the Meeting-House.

The following is a list of the Superintendents, with their terms of service, as near as can now be ascertained :

VI.

FORM OF ADMISSION TO THE CHURCH.

ADDRESS.

Beloved Friends: You present yourselves before God and these witnesses, to make a solemn profession of your Christian Faith, and to enter into Covenant with Christ and his Church in this place. We trust you have duly considered the nature of this profession, and the new relations you will henceforth sustain, and that you are prepared, by Divine Grace, to offer yourselves as living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to God, through Jesus Christ.

We now ask your assent to our

ARTICLES OF BELIEF.

We believe in the one only living and true God, who exists as Father, Son and Holy Ghost; that these three are one equal and infinite, in all natural and moral perfections.

We believe that God created and upholds and governs all things according to the wise and eternal counsel of his own Will, yet in perfect accordance with the free moral action of men.

We believe that the Bible is the inspired word of God, the perfect and only rule of Belief and Practice.

We believe that our First Parents were created holy; that they fell from that state by transgressing the command of God; and that in consequence of their apostasy, all their descendants are without original holiness, and alienated from God until their hearts are renewed by Divine Grace.

We believe that the Son of God took upon himself the form of man; that he died, rose again, and ascended to the right hand of the Father, where he ever liveth to make intercession for us; that by his obedience, sufferings and death, he made a complete atonement, which is the only ground of forgiveness for sin; that pardon and eternal life are sincerely offered to all, upon condition of repentance and faith in Christ; that those who repent and believe will be kept, by the power of God, through faith, unto salvation.

We believe that Christ has established a Visible Church in the world, the terms of admission to which are,—credible evidence of Regeneration by the Holy Spirit, and a Public Profession of Faith in the Redeemer; and that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are Ordinances of the Church, to be observed to the end of time.

We believe that God has appointed one day in the seven to be kept holy unto himself; and that from the Resurrection of Christ, to the end of the world, the first day of the week is the Christian Sabbath.

We believe, also, in the Resurrection of the Dead, and in a day of Final Judgment, in which all will receive according to their deeds; that the Wicked will go away into Everlasting Punishment, and the Righteous into Life Eternal.

Experimentally, we believe that God has wrought in us genuine Repentance for Sin; that he has renewed our hearts; that he has justified and accepted us, and sealed us heirs of heaven.

To this Confession, according to your understanding of the truth and according to your personal Faith in Christ, do you now (severally) give your cordial assent?

[Here Baptism is to be administered, or recognized, in answer to the following question :

Do you, who have received Baptism, on the Faith of your Parents, now publicly accept, and endorse their act as your own?]

Will you now join us in solemn

COVENANT?

In the presence of God and these witnesses, we do now avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, to be our God, the Supreme Object of our affection and our Portion forever.

We cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ to be our Redeemer, and the Holy Spirit to be our Sanctifier, Comforter and Guide.

We cheerfully devote ourselves to God in the Covenant of his Grace; consecrating all our powers and faculties and possessions to his service and glory.

And we promise, through the assistance of his Spirit, that we will cleave to Him as our Chief Good, that we will give diligent attention and cordial support to His word and Ordinances, in secret, in the family, and in the House of God; that we will seek the interest and honor of His Kingdom; and that, henceforth, denying all ungodliness and every worldly lust, we will live soberly and righteously and godly in the world.

We do now, more especially, join ourselves to this Church, engaging to submit to its Rules of Government and Discipline,—to strive earnestly for its peace, edification and purity,—and to walk with its members in charity, fidelity and Christian watchfulness.

Do you thus solemnly covenant and promise?

We then, the members of this Church, affectionately receive you to our communion, and, in the name of Christ, declare you entitled to all the privileges of membership in the Church of God. We welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the gospel and, on our part, engage to watch over you in Christian affection and to seek your edification as long as you continue to be with us.

And now, Beloved in the Lord, let us never forget that the vows of God are upon us, and that the obligations which we have ratified and sealed, this day, are as lasting as eternity. Wherever we go, they will be with us. They will follow us to the bar of God. They will abide with us, in whatever world we may be, forever. Let it be our constant aim and earnest prayer to God, that he will help us to fulfill them.

May the Lord guide and preserve us till death, and at last receive us all to that blessed world where our love and joy shall be perfect forever, through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRINCIPLES AND RULES OF CHURCH ORDER.

1. A Christian Church is an Association of professed followers of Christ, organized for the purpose of mutual watchfulness; the observance of the Christian Sacraments; the maintenance of Christian worship and instruction, and the extension of the Kingdom of Christ in the world. Such a body, under Christ, is fully competent to choose its officers, admit its members, administer discipline, and do all other acts necessary to the accomplishment of these objects.

2. A Church, though thus independent of external authority, is bound in relations of mutual care and communion with other Churches; and this Church, in all ordinary cases, will conform to the usages of fellowship established among Congregational Churches.

3. The permanent officers of the Church are a Pastor, or Pastors and Deacons. This Church also appoints, annually, a Clerk, a Church-Committee to examine candidates for admission, and to secure faithful attention to discipline, and a Sabbath-School Committee of three, for the supervision of the Sabbath-School.

4. The Church-Committee consists of the Pastor and the Deacons, and two other brethren, the last to be chosen annually.

5. The Sabbath-School Committee (of which the Pastor is a member, ex officio) shall, on the day they are appointed, nominate a Superintendent, Assistant-Superintendent, Secretary, Treasurer, Librarian, Assistant-Librarian, and a board of at least five more teachers than there are classes in the Sabbath-School. These nominations, if approved by the Church, shall, on or before the day of its reorganization, be presented to the Sabbath-School for its approval. This Committee shall also be responsible for the selection of all books and papers, both for study and general reading in the Sabbath-School.

6. Persons applying for admission to the Church are first examined by the Church, under the direction of the Church-Committee, and, having been propounded for at least two weeks, are admitted by vote taken at the Preparatory Lecture; and become members in full by publicly assenting to the Articles of Belief and Covenant.

7. Members of any and all other Christian Churches, worshipping with us, are cordially invited to the Lord's Table, and all other privileges of Church members, for one year. Within that time, they are specially desired to bring letters of dismissal and recommendation to us, and become members with us.

8. Members of this church, removing from town to become permanent residents elsewhere, are expected to take letters of dismissal from us to some church near where they reside, within the space of one year from their removal, unless they give the church satisfactory reasons for not doing so.

9. The rule of Christ, enjoined in Matt. xviii. 15--17, is to be literally followed by members of this Church in all cases of private offense, and the spirit of this rule is to govern all disciplinary processes in relation to members guilty of other offenses.

10. The Annual Meeting of the Church is on Friday preceeding the first Sabbath in April.

11. The Lord's Supper is administered on the first Sabbaths, respectively, of January, March, May, July, September, and November.

Preparatory Lecture, Friday P. M. preceeding Communion Sabbath.

12. The Social meetings of the Church are as follows:—

I. MONTHLY.

1. Missionary Concert, the first Sabbath of each month.
2. Social Conference, the first Monday of each month.
3. Sabbath-School Concert, the second Sabbath of each month.
4. Church-Meeting, the last Friday in each month.

II. WEEKLY.

1. Pastor's Meeting, Monday evening.
2. Young People's Prayer Meeting, Tuesday evening.
3. Ladies' Prayer Meeting, or Social Union, Wednesday afternoon.
4. Church Prayer Meeting, and Sabbath-School Teachers' Meeting, Friday evening.

BENEVOLENT CONTRIBUTIONS.

Stated Contributions, for Benevolent Objects, are taken in Church, the first Sabbath morning of each month, as follows:—

- January;—Poor of the Parish.
- March;—Bible Society.
- May;—Sabbath-School.
- June;—Home Missions.
- July;—Poor of the Parish.
- August;—American Missionary Association.
- September:—Education Society.
- October;—Tract Society.
- November;—Seamen's Cause.
- December;—Am. Congregational Union.

In addition to the above, a Collection is taken at the Preparatory Lecture for Church Expenses; and, in the month of January, by special canvass, a subscription for Foreign Missions.

PASTOR'S REQUESTS AND APPOINTMENTS.

1. The Pastor specially desires to be informed by the persons themselves, or by others, of REMOVALS FROM TOWN, prior to their going, if possible, of any family, or individual belonging to this Church or Congregation; and of REMOVALS INTO TOWN, of any family or individual, who would choose to worship with us.

2. Members of the Church and Congregation are particularly requested to inform the Pastor, at once, of all cases of SICKNESS AND AFFLICTIONS where his counsel and sympathy may be desired.

3. Any persons, in the Church or Congregation, who desire personal RELIGIOUS CONVERSATION, with the Pastor, are cordially invited to call at his study, Monday Evening of each week, between 7 and 9 o'clock; or Friday P. M. between 2 and 4 o'clock. The Pastor would prefer in no case to receive calls in the forenoon of any day, except in case of urgent necessity.

4. Before the appointment of the hour for FUNERAL SERVICES, the Pastor asks in all cases to be consulted, as other engagements may make it impossible to attend at an hour independently chosen. It is specially requested that, when convenient, an earlier hour than one o'clock P. M. may not be chosen, and that in no case, except imperative necessity, funeral services be appointed on the Sabbath.
